LIPSE...a new classic is born

A new seating classic has been born with the creation of Lipse. The unique plywood shell creates a distinctive design statement with its shapely lines and special connection between the back and seat shell. The joined shell is then applied to different bases and tandem beams creating the perfect multi-purpose design.

Bistro height bar stool and table available, as shown in background.

LIPSE ... elegant side seating

It is a simple choice... four-leg or the classic pedestal base. Either will offer a statement of elegance. Select the timber finish, or specify the interior upholstery to add rich texture, colour, or patterns to the aesthetics of this classic design. Thick tapestries or exceptionally thin material should be avoided.

Optional stacking devices may be specified for upholstered or wood chairs that allow four chairs to stack.
